Baldwin, D. C. Lindsay and C. B. Welis. The Hito committee consists of John Moir, W. McKay, H. Vlears, C. F. Wight, and E. Kay, H. Vlears, C. F. Wight, and E. Kay, H. Vicars, C. E. Wright and E. N. Holmes.

It is recommended that a committee be appointed to take charge of the en-ertainment in Honolulu. The funds at the disposal of your committee are hardly sufficient to pay for transportation and hotel bills, and it is further nuggested that the enter-tainment of the guests be given by each separate community. It is suggested that the entertainment of Honolulu consist of the follow-ing to be arranged by the committee appointed for Honolulu.
